SPECIAL NOTICES:

Failure of Audit:

Firms who fail the annual QP5 audit will be given up to 45 days after notification of audit results to submit a Corrective Action Plan and request that SSPC re-evaluate. SSPC reserves the right to withhold certification from firms who fail a maintenance or follow-up evaluation until a Corrective Action Plan (CAP) is submitted and accepted by SSPC. SSPC may opt, in certain cases, to extend the company's certification status following acceptance of a CAP for a limited period subject to certain conditions.

Firms placed on suspension for failing an audit will be formally notified in writing (e.g. by letter or email) of the suspension.

- The firm is given 45 days from notification to make corrective actions and be re-audited
- The firm is asked to return original certificates
- The firm is asked not to represent itself as QP5 certified, while the suspension is in effect

During a suspension period, the firm's name will be removed from SSPC's web site list of QP5 certified firms (<http://www.sspc.org/qp-programs/qp-programs-home/>). Firms will be formally notified in writing when a suspension is lifted, valid certificates will be reissued, and the Firm's name will be added back to the list of QP5 certified inspection firms.
