

SSPC TRAINING & CERTIFICATION PROGRAM SPONSORSHIP

SSPC offers world-class training & certification for blasters, painters, inspectors, engineers, and other professionals that span the entire industrial protective coatings industry, bringing confidence to individuals and companies alike. In 2018, over 7,000 professionals participated in SSPC training and certification programs. SSPC training helps to build skills and knowledge through flexible training options, real-world content, and validation of skills through hands-on certification exams.

Sponsorship Opportunities

SSPC is currently looking for the following items to be donated:

-  Abrasive or coatings
-  Inspection instruments
-  Sponsor a lunch
-  Create a field kit to be given to each student
-  Custom sponsorship — you tell us what you would like to sponsor

Sponsoring a training event allows you to partner with SSPC, a highly trusted organization in the industrial coatings community, and introduces your company to an audience of receptive professionals.

SSPC is grateful to companies that are able to donate equipment and consumables. Donations provide students and participants a hands-on opportunity to use current equipment in the market.
